

First Timer Info

We would love to see you at the National Beta Convention. The more you prepare and put into your experience, the greater your experience will be. Come prepared to learn, engage, and network with your colleagues in National Beta. We are excited to welcome you to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Before the Convention

- Read the National Convention Handbook to familiarize yourself with the event
- Register online and book your hotel
- Plan activities during the downtime in order for your students to get the full OKC experience
- Start following National Beta on social media to get the latest information about the 2019 National Convention
- Check back in May to download the convention app.
- Continue to check the convention website and your e-mail for convention information and to view the final program two weeks prior to the convention

At the Convention

- Pick up your registration materials located at the registration booth in the Cox Convention Center
- Be open to meeting new people in order to network with other sponsors about best Beta practices
- Come early to the general sessions to participate in the pre-session activities
- Encourage your students to take advantage of all of the opportunities offered at the convention
- Complete the online survey of your experience at the 2019 National Beta Convention
