AWARDS CEREMONY INDUCTION

PREPARATION
This Spring ceremony is designed to be integrated cohesively into your end of year awards ceremony. A Sponsor, Co-Sponsor, Club Officer or Administrator may announce inductees.

INTRODUCTION
My name is [name]. It is my honor to present to you the newest inductees of [School Name]’s National Beta club. I am excited to recognize this group of bright young students as they become members, grow into leaders of our school and community and focus on the four pillars of Beta: achievement, character, leadership and service.

Simply being invited to become a member is an honor. Students at our school must: (Include any additional information regarding specific academic, service, behavior and meeting criteria your students must meet in order to be invited to your club.)

RECOGNITION
Please join me in congratulating the following inductees:
You may choose to have students walk across the stage to collect their membership materials or have them stand to be recognized and provide them with their materials at a later time/date.

CLOSING
Inductees, I hope you feel pride in becoming members of this prestigious organization. You truly are the leaders in your school and community and are joining the ranks of over 500,000 active Beta members residing within approximately 9,000 clubs both nationally and internationally.

NOTES
Since this is a simplified recognition ceremony, we recommend having new inductees recite the pledge during your next meeting as the final official induction step.

PLEDGE:
National Beta was founded upon four pillars: achievement, character, leadership, and service. I’d now like you to join me as we recite and accept the pledge of National Beta membership. Please raise your right hand and repeat after me.

SENIOR BETA PLEDGE: I do solemnly declare that I shall always strive to hold fast to the principles of honesty; to endeavor constantly to maintain an admirable reputation; and to develop the foundation of character, service, achievement and leadership in my life. I also pledge to cooperate with my fellow members. I will encourage an individual responsibility to improve my school, community, state and nation. I will defend a high standard of morality and join with my club to contribute to the improvement of our entire student body.

JUNIOR BETA PLEDGE: I hereby declare that I shall always strive to be honest and truthful; to maintain a credible scholastic record; to be of service to my teachers and peers; to conduct myself in an ethical and moral manner to reflect credit upon my school and community.
